National Honor Society Volunteer Hours

Re: Student Name: _____

Dear National Honor Society Coordinator,

The above student has been participating as a volunteer for the Woodinville Day Camp (Girl Scouts of Western Washington) since April 2019. Woodinville Day Camp is directed by volunteers as a girl-led camp. Our teens lead units of campers, activity stations and act as other support staff at camp. Our teens serve as Program Aides (PAs) and drive the direction we go to provide quality outdoor education and skill progression to campers entering pre-school to the sixth grade.

Duties include: Providing service to Woodinville Girl Scout Day camp with both required pre-camp readiness activities to develop leadership skills and outdoor skills for overseeing elementary aged children and providing input on activity stations and; performing the day camp counselor role leading assigned elementary-aged children who practice outdoor activities such as knots, tools, wilderness awareness, crafts, etc. Service to Woodinville Day camp also includes daily camp set-up the week of camp.
